ST. James's, May 21. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Repreſentative in Parliament, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Deputy-Recorder, and other Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worceſter; preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Herbert.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WITH Hearts ſincere for your Government, with Purſes open for ſuch Sums as may be thought neceſſary for the Support of it, and with Hands ready to be imploy'd againſt all Pretenders, we declare to our utmoſt Deteſtation of the late deſign'd Invaſion, and of all thoſe who were Promoters of it.

Your Majeſty's rightful and lawful Title to the Crown of Great Britain and Ireland, with all the Territories thereunto belonging, is ſo well known Abroad, and your Adminiſtration ſo well imploy'd in maintaining the ſacred and civil Rights of your People at Home, that we are under Admiration to find you have Enemies any where; but more to hear of them amongſt your own Subjects, whoſe Inclinations or Miſtakes make them fond of exchanging our happy Conſtitution for a French Yoke impos'd by an Arbitrary and Popiſh Power.

As your Majeſty is juſtly ſtiled the Defender of our Faith, give us Leave heartily to own you the Reſtorer of our Franchiſes and Liberties, which muſt have unavoidably dropt in this our Borough of Bewdley without your gracious Favour in confirming to us our Charter of King James the Firſt, your Majeſty's Great Grandfather, and giving us a Bailiff and a ſufficient Number of Capital Burgeſſes to execute the Government thereof.

Our Prayers ſhall be for Succeſs to your Majeſty's Forces by Land and Sea, in Conjunction with your Allies, for a Diſcovery of all your Enemies, for the continu'd Love of your Subjects, for your Length of Days, and for the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſh'd.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, High-Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen, at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, holden for the County of Cumberland on the 14th Day of April 1708; preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Principal Secretary of State.

The humble Addreſs of the ancient Borough of Stockbridge; preſented by Sir Edward Lawrence, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, Principal Secretary of State.

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtables and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Great Marlow, in the County of Bucks; preſented by James Chaſe, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Diocеſs of Oxford.

The humble Addreſſes of the Borough of Athlone, Corporation of Carrickfergus, and Corporation of Clonmel, in the Kingdom of Ireland, were tranſmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Pembroke, and by him preſented to Her Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Burgeſſes, Town-Council, and Community of the Royal Burgh of Inverneſs, ſent by the Right Honourable the Earl of Kintore, and preſented to her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Queenſberry.

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Kintore, ſent by the Right Honourable the Earl of Kintore, and preſented to Her Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Queenſberry.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Bailiffs, Town-Council, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Montroſe; preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir David Nairne.

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, and chief Heritors of the Shire of Wigtoun, at their firſt Quarter-Seſſions held at Wigtoun; preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir David Nairne.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Turin, May 12. N. S. Laſt Sunday being the Prince of Piemont's Birth-day, all the Foreign Miniſters waited upon his Highneſs, and afterwards complimented their Royal Highneſſes on this Occaſion; at Night there was a great Appearance of Perſons of Quality, who were entertain'd with Fire-works prepar'd in the Palace Garden. The Baron de Regal, General de Battaille, with ſeveral other Imperial Officers, arriv'd here on the 10th Inſtant, and had the Honour to wait upon his Royal Highneſs. By the laſt Advices from our Frontiers, we are inform'd that the Enemies were diligently employ'd in making ſeveral Redouts about Exiles, and deſign'd others amongſt the Ruins of Montmeillan; we hear likewiſe that they have ſent Pioneers to the Banks of the Var, being apprehenſive of a ſecond Attempt upon Provence. Major-General Stanhope is arriv'd here, and had Yeſterday a long Conference with his Royal Highneſs in private; laſt Night the Britiſh Envoy preſented him to the Dutcheſs, by whom he was receiv'd in a very obliging manner.

Vienna, May 16. N. S. Marſhal Heiſter having gone from hence the 11th Inſtant to Oedenburgh, advanc'd the Night following with a Detachment of Horſe towards Ghinz, with Intention to ſurprize General Bezeredi in his Head-Quarters; but an immediate Notice which Bezeredi had of the approach of the Imperial Detachment gave him time enough to retire with moſt of his Troops. The Marſhal found in the Place 200 Horſes, which he brought away with him. General Bezeredi's Lady was taken, and conducted to a Place of Safety. The Marſhal return'd hither on the 14th in the Morning, to give his Imperial Majeſty an account of this ſhort Expedition. The Governor of Peter-waradin having been inform'd, that a contagious Diſtemper begins to rage at Carlowitz, has ſtopt up all Communication with that Place. By Letters from Meſericz on the Frontiers of Moravia, we have Advice, that on the 7th Inſtant the Hungarians had made an Inroad into that Marquiſate in two different Places, having taken by Storm the Caſtle of Uſtetin, laid in Aſhes about ten Villages, and killed ſeveral hundred of the Peaſants. Mr. Bruyninx, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General to this Court, ſet out yeſterday on his Journey to Holland, whither he is gone to take care of his private Affairs, intending to return hither within three or four Months.

Berne, May 19. N. S. Monſieur de Puiſieux having appointed the Cantons of Zurich and Berne to ſend Deputies to him at Soleure, in order to exchange the Ratifications of the Treaty of Neufchatel between the French King and the Proteſtant Cantons, each Canton accordingly ſent its Chancellor thither for that purpoſe on the 15th Inſtant, and exchang'd the Ratifications in the form agreed upon, with which they are return'd home to the intire Satisfaction of all Parties.

From the Camp at Bellinghen, May 28. N. S. On Saturday the 26th Inſtant, his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, having been waited on the Day before by the Council of State, and other Perſons of Quality at Bruſſels, to wiſh his Grace a proſperous Campaign, left that Place and march'd with the Army, which had been aſſembled ſome Days before at Anderlecht, to the Camp of Bellinghen, where we were join'd by Lieutenant-General Lumley with all the Troops from Flanders, and encamp'd with the Right at Keſter, and the Left at Hall. We had, at the ſame time Advice, that the Enemy having drawn together their ſeveral Bodies, were come to the Camp of Soignies, and poſted with their Right at Naiſt, and their Left at Cauchie Notre Dame, within three Leagues of our Camp. His Grace has given Orders for our Army to make a Movement to Morrow, and to extend themſelves upon the Plains between Haute Croix on the Right, and Lembecq on the Left, by which means we ſhall be advanc'd nearer to the Enemy.

Hague, May 29 N. S. On the 26th Inſtant Admiral Pieterſon imbark'd, in order to ſail with the Squadron under his Command. His Excellency the Lord Raby, Britiſh Ambaſſador at the Court of Berlin, having obtain'd her Majeſty's Leave to go into Great Britain, is arriv'd here in his way thither. Letters from the Upper Rhine inform us, That his Imperial Majeſty hath conſented that the Elector Palatine ſhould be poſſeſs'd of the Palatinate of Bavaria, with all thoſe Rights and Diſtinctions which the Palatine Family did formerly enjoy by the Right of Seniority; and that thereupon 10000 Palatines are order'd to march towards the Moſelle, and join the other Troops which are to ſerve there under the Command of Prince Eugene. We hear, that the Differences at Hamburgh are in a fair Method of being compos'd, the Town hath conſented to receive ſome Troops of the Circle, under certain Terms agreed on between the Parties and their Mediators. They write from Bruſſels, that Feldt-Mareſchal Auverquerque, and the Lords Deputies of the States General, are gone to the Camp. The Enemies Forces aſſembled on the 25th Inſtant at Stanie St. Pierre, Roculx, and Stanie St. Paul, the Head Quarters being at St Simpronien; and on the 26th their whole Army march'd and took the Camp of Soignies. 'Tis ſaid the Pretender is in the Field with a ſmall Equipage, and aſſumes the Name of the Chevalier de St. George. We hear from Mons, that the Elector of Bavaria was arriv'd at Strasburg, and had given Orders for detaching ſome Troops from the Rhine towards the Moſelle.

Ghent, May 30. N. S. By Letters from Bruſſels of this Day we hear, that the Armies have made Motions towards each other. The Duke of Marlborough is encamp'd near St. Renelde and Enquien, and the advanc'd Troops of the Enemy are poſted near Steinquerke.

At the Court at Kenſington, May 20.
